

Dirty Seven Retains League Leadership

The Dirty Seven grid machine ground out an impressive 35-3 win over the previously unbeaten El Prado Furniture Co.'s touch football team in the first game played Sunday in the Torrance Football League. The defeat dumped the losers into second place in the league standings and left the winners as the only unbeaten and untied team in the circuit.

Late in the second quarter the Dirty Seven took to the air and scored 14 quick points; Bob Golden tossed to Eddie Roberts touch down and once for the extra point and hit Paul Biller for the second conversion. In the third period Roberts added seven markers to the Dirty Seven's score by taking Golden's 75 yard throw for 6 points, adding the extra counter in the same manner.

Biller started the scoring in the final period by passing 60 yards to Roberts who adroitly sidestepped scattered pieces of furniture for 55 yards on his journey to the goal; Bill Moon took Golden's toss for the conversion tally. The El Prado gang became unruly at this point and scores were being scored before being substituted. Gerald Godard figured prominently in the uprising as he hung a two point tag on Biller for a safety and two plays later gathered in Donnie Cook's long pass for a T.D.

The longest completed pass of the day resulted in the final touchdown being made for the Dirty Seven; Bob Golden threw a high one 80 yards downfield to Bill Moon who took it on the dead run to score.

Roberts again took Golden's pass for the extra point. His 27 points scored in this game is a new league record for individual scoring in one game, replacing the mark of 20 established by Marvin Kent of the El Prado Furniture team in their game against National Home Appliance team.

In the 12:45 p. m. game the Torrance Showmen and the National Home Appliance squads squared off for the collision. The Showmen won the game by a score of 51-29 in the feature game of a triple-header at the Redondo Union high school gym. Oilers Defeat Burbank; Play Fox Nine Sunday

Torrance Signal Oilers Sunday broke a six-inning tie with Burbank Merchants in Torrance park to reach the invaders 8-2. Burbank scored in the opening inning and held the Oilers scoreless until the fifth frame, when a lone tally tied the game.

The locals found the mighty arm of Wally Hood, Burbank chucker, in the seventh and batted the horsehide for five runs across the plate to lead 5-1. Burbank's left fielder, Pete Hughes, started an eighth inning bid for the visitors by driving Archie Campbell's offering over right field fence for the day's lone homer.

Then, with two away, Burbank put three men aboard and much to Campbell's discomfort the next Merchant up slapped out a Texas leaguer which should have been good for a least two tallies.

He was robbed by Cal Barnes, flashy center fielder who raced in and made a shoestring catch, turned three somersaults and came up with the ball to pull Archie out of the hole.

Next Sunday the Oilers meet their first round conquerors, 20th Century Fox on the local diamond. The game starts at 2 p.m.

FANS AT THEATER OPENING MISTAKE CYNTHIA FOR STAR

Capt. Louis Zamperini and his wife Cynthia were guests of honor at the opening of the New Park theater in Gardena.

In the Zamperini party were movie personalities Preston Foster, Martha Raye, John Weismuller, James Dunn and Bill Elliott.

Movie fans gathered early for the opening, expecting the arrival of their favorite motion picture stars, were wowed by the Zam's lovely wife, Cynthia and persisted in their efforts to gain her autograph, believing, no doubt, that the beautiful Mrs. Zamperini was a studio starlet.
